

M1 – The Challenges You Face on the Road to Health Equity

Kenya V. Beard EdD, AGACNP-BC, NP-C, CNE, ANEF

The slides are not available. Dr. Beard will make her slides available electronically to anyone who requests it at the session.

Learner Objectives/Content Outline

- I. Define health equity
 - A. Health equity in your neighborhood
 1. What is health equity
 2. The state of healthcare quality in NY
 3. Why diversity

- II. List three factors that hinder health equity initiatives
 - A. Hidden hurdles undermining quality care initiatives
 - B. Factors contributing to poor patient outcomes
 1. Knowledge Gap
 2. Implicit Bias
 3. Race, Power, & Privilege

- III. Describe individual behaviors that optimize health care quality for all patients
 - A. Diversity leads to excellence
 1. The Call for Diversity
 - a) Difference – what's your role
 - b) Recognizing one's reality
 2. Creating Inclusive Environments
 - a) Emotional Intelligence
 3. Preventing Health Equity Policy derailment
 - a) Identifying individual behaviors that promote health equity